McCarthy and Cordell Training in Earnest For Coming Engagement

Both Jack Cordell and Johnny McCarthy begin training in earnest for their coming encounter at the Athletic Park.

Cordell will spar at Fort de Russy and McCarthy at a place to be decided on this afternoon.

At Fort de Russy the middleweight will have the services of Denny Leary as sparring partner and there are one or two other men at the post who are good with the gloves and who have intimidated their willingness to assist Jack in his conditioning.

He is running on the sands every morning and taking regular swimming exercise, making his headquarters at the Waikiki Inn where hostess is affording him every assistance for training in his power.

Cordell has to make 155 pounds two hours before he goes into the ring with McCarthy and there is no doubt about his ability to do this weight nicely.

Johnny McCarthy will weigh around 142 pounds when he faces Cordell on the 29th inst. He is in excellent fix right now and is getting better every day.

Johnny, like Cordell, is an enthusiastic swimmer and in the deep water off the Healan, boathouse is developing into quite an expert.

McCarthy is able to do some bag-punching at the boathouse and there is also other useful apparatus at his disposal.

Corporal Trier and Kid Baker will help McCarthy out as sparring partners and George Ingle and Kid Cabral will also help out in this respect.

Leary vs. Bauersack.

The eight-round preliminary between Denny Leary of Fort de Russy and Trooper Bauersack of the Fifth Cavalry will be a little main event in itself.

Bauersack is now in the best shape of his career and is improving every time he does battle. His recent showing at Schofield Barracks against Klisner was a very creditable one.

THIRTEEN INNING GAME WEARIES BASEBALL FANS

In the Oahu Senior League yesterday the J. A. C. beat the Asahis in a thirteen-inning game by the score of 8 to 7; and the Stars put it over the P. A. C. 7 to 4.

The first game was long and slow and unredeemed by brilliant effort.

The game was won in the thirteenth as follows:

Chillingworth got safe to first on a fumble by pitcher and short, stole second, went to third on an overthrow and scored on Kualii's hit to leftfield. Kualii died at second on Markham's grounder to short. Yamashiro was safe on short's error.

Hampton bunted to pitcher and Markham was nipped at the wire. Buckley got a pass and the inning came to an end when Bruns' grounder to second forced Yamashiro out at third.

Stars vs. P. A. C.

The Stars beat the P. A. C. 7 to 4, after the latter had looked like winners all over.

In the seventh the Stars netted no less than five runs.

Joy pitched for the winners and La Mere for the losers. Neither did anything calling for special commendation.

The P. A. C. uncovered a new player in the person of Zamiska and the stranger made a good impression, showing that he is there both with stick, hand and hoof.
